Mrs. Eliza Nichols House of Dummerston Hill celebrated her 85th birthday anniversary on Tuesday, June 14, by inviting her children and friends to her home. All of her family were present except one daughter, Mrs. Charles Warren of Fairlee. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Albee of Brookline, Mr. and Mrs. Stettin of New York, Mrs. Augusta Morse of Stowe, Mrs. Lena Miller, Mrs. Susan Warren, who is 82 years old, Mrs. Stella Holladay, a grand niece, all of West Brattleboro, and Mrs. and Mrs. Almona Norcross of West Dummerston. Mrs. Morse prepared the dinner for the party, and her guests partook of it first-class. The guests carried an abundance of flowers and special notice was taken of a bunch of white roses which Mrs. Morse's daughter, Mrs. Stettin, brought. She also received numerous birthday gifts from her friends and the family. Mrs. Morse is a very active and busy woman for one of her years, and we wish her many happy anniversaries.

DUMMERSTON.
R. Eugene Knight.

R. Eugene Knight died early Friday morning at his home at 124 Park street, Worcester, Mass., from heart trouble, after an attack of grip. He was born in Dummerston in 1827, a son of Oliver and Lavilla (Gates) Knight. He went to Worcester when 19, where he learned to be a toolmaker in the old George Croppin shop on Green street. In 1850 he married Rebecca Newton, daughter of Worcester. Eight years later he returned to his old home in Vermont, remaining there ten years. Since that time he had been in Worcester.

Mr. Knight was a man of sterling worth, strict integrity and much ability. In his domestic life he was the kindest of husbands and fathers. As a workman he became a skilled mechanic. He was for many years a member of the Worcester County Mechanics' association and of Worcester lodge, New England Order of Protection.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the home, Rev. Alexander Lewis conducting the service. There was a procession of beautiful flowers from relatives and friends and from members of the church. Mr. Knight's fellow employees and Worcester lodge, a quartet sang three selections. The burial was in Holy Cross cemetery. Mr. Knight is survived by his wife, two sons, Bertrand E. of Hopkdale, Mass., and Charles O. of Worcester, and by two sisters, Mrs. George W. Morse of Hopkdale and Mrs. George H. Sears of Hopkdale. Joseph W. Patch of Dummerston is a brother-in-law.

The Grange held an interesting meeting Tuesday evening, conferring the third and fourth degrees, followed by an ice cream supper. The next meeting will be held June 28. Questions of the Grange are: "How important is the adaptability of the crop to soil and demands of the local market?" and "How can I add our present lecturer by my past experience as a lecturer?" Children's day will be observed Saturday, June 25, and the children are requested to be prepared to sing and recite. Dinner will be served in the evening, to which all members are invited to contribute.

The Flag of Victory.
The thirteen Stars and Stripes was triumphant at Saratoga in 1777, also in the war of 1812, Mexican war, Civil war and Spanish war. It has been the flag of our flag has been truly called "The Flag of Victory." On account of the unequal record of cures made by the famous Hostetter's Stomach and Bowel Pills, it has been truly called "The Flag of Victory." In fact, it is so safe and reliable that prominent physicians all over the country never hesitate in recommending it to their most delicate patients, knowing from their past experience that if a cure is possible the Hostetter's Bitters will convince you of its value in cases of indigestion, dyspepsia, constipation, biliousness or malaria. Be sure to try it.

TOWNSHEND.

A Rhodes Scholarship Goes to a Native of This Town.

The Providence Journal of last week Wednesday contained an interesting article regarding the selection of six graduates of Brown University to receive scholarships under the fund given for this purpose by the late Cecil Rhodes. Examinations for these scholarships were held throughout the United States and Canada on April 12 and 13, and the report of the Oxford examiners has just been given out. Among the six chosen men is Guy Blodgett, of Northfield, N. H., who is a member of the present senior class of Brown. He is the eldest son of the late Dr. Blodgett, who was a member of the present senior class of Brown. He is the eldest son of the late Dr. Blodgett, who was a member of the present senior class of Brown.

Young Blodgett is a native of Townshend and is the only child of his parents born in this country. The other children, all having been born in Bermuda, India, where his father and mother were missionaries for many years. The father was himself a graduate of Brown University. His mother was Mary Hamilton of this town. He is a nephew of Dr. C. G. Stedding, who will be of interest to recall in this connection that the will of the late Cecil Rhodes provides that two students shall be selected from each state and territory of this country, and there are arrangements whereby students from Germany also may profit by the scholarship fund. Each holder of a scholarship from the United States shall have an income of $300 per year for a term of three years, or $1500 for the entire course, on which to live, and at the same time have the privilege of attending Oxford University free of charge.
